Remarks

The notation of the usũl is transcribed from the usũl table in TR-Iüne 211-9.

Usũl darbeyn is seen as a combination of devr-i kebîr and berefşân, which the scribe divided by the div. sign ❖ . Therefore, a solid bar line marks these passages in the upper staff, while the usũl staff has no bar lines, indicating that the cycle continues until the second div. sign.
